

In Your Arms

Without Your Son standing beside me and wrapping me in His arms and garments I would have NO business even coming to You. My Big Brother brings me to my Dad and says "Dad she has something to ask You" or "She needs to talk to You about something." You always listen when Your children talk because He asks for us.

Thank You Jesus for bringing me to Your Dad and telling Him that You want me to be Your sister and asking Him to adopt me as His own child! I can actually walk into my Dad's house and talk to Him because He said I'm welcome there! When I do something wrong I need to tell Him I'm sorry and really mean it but that doesn't end our relationship. He always loves me and is ready to listen and help even if it is just being there to listen to me cry.
