

Remember Me
I remember you

When you traveled in the wilderness
When you crossed the Red Sea
When you shouted and the walls fell
When you built altars to me

But what about

When you built the golden calf
When you killed your own seed
When you worshiped things forbidden
When you refused my words to heed

I didn't forget you then

I am in every triumph
I am in every care
I am with you always
I am with you everywhere

I cry when you are hurting
I rejoice when you succeed
I remember how My grace
Will attend to every need

Sometimes in the remembering
I saw things you tried to hide...

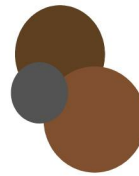

Today, will you remember Me
I remembered you

When you found that extra dollar
When there was plenty on the tree
When the job was quickly offered
When the medicine was free

But what about

When the bills were overflowing
When in the shower you would cry
When you beat your broken body
When you decided not to try

I didn't forget you then either

We need to sit and talk
About the things I see inside

Not all pain is earned
Not all pleasure's a reward
But I still remember you
You see, I am The Lord

Now do you remember Me?
We can walk together in triumph
We can walk together in pain
We can walk together in sunshine
We can walk together in rain

We can always walk together

Today and tomorrow
I'll always remember you
Please remember Me
