

Thank You for the laughter!

The sound I long to hear ringing through my ears.
Is the sound of my children's laughter, freed from any tears.
You fill their souls with music that only laughter may express.
Then push it to the surface where no problem can suppress.
In that simple sound of laughter I find hope and joy anew.
It brings me to my knees where I must truly worship You!
Thank You for their laughter!

