

Popsicle sticks and paperclips

I'm glad You finally got here. I really need Your help here. Take this and hold it right there while I wrap this around it. I started working on it as soon as I saw it. Isn't it great! I just know I'm going to love it when it's finished. I'll be able to use it for all kinds of neat things!

That's not supposed to happen. Here let me try this instead. Could You give me a hand with this? OK, if I just brace this here like that and use that over there to prop it up, it should work fine. There, that fixed it. It doesn't really look like what I thought it would. I guess it will be ok.

Quick! Grab it! It's falling over! Now what's wrong with it?

No, I didn't think it needed any of those. The instructions? I didn't have time to read them. I had to get this started before it was too late.

Well, I guess we could try that. Ok.

I didn't see that before. Do You think it will matter? Maybe we could turn it around and then no one would see it.

Maybe we should replace this one with the one You brought. I only used it because I didn't have anything else to make it work. Yah, I guess it wasn't really doing the job anyway. To bad. It would have been much easier if I had had Yours to begin with.

I didn't have time to wait; I had to get it finished!

It looks a bit better now but nothing like the picture. How come I never seem to get it just right? It'll still work though won't it?

Do You still want it?

2 x 4s and nails

I knew You wouldn't let me down. I was getting a bit scared just sitting here not doing anything. Actually, I was reading the instructions again. Ready when You are!

I remember last time. I made such a mess starting without You. I want to be sure to get it right this time. I'm so glad that You were able to fix what I messed up last time and still use it. It would have been so much easier though if I had just waited for You. This time I'll be sure I do everything just right.

What do You mean I won't always get it perfect? I thought You would make everything so easy. That was why I waited so long.

Oh, it's because life is not perfect and I am still human. Ok, I think I can live with that.

I'm glad You'll be there to help me when things do go wrong. I guess learning from my mistakes is ok. Just don't let me make any more really big ones.

Looking it all over again

You know it just occurred to me that You didn't criticize me in any of our projects. You didn't tell me that I ruined everything. You didn't even reject what I had made. You fixed the broken parts and gently urged me on in changing the way I was doing things until what I was doing was just what You wanted me to do in the first place. Pretty slick trick there God. Thanks, I really needed that encouragement.
