

You Hold My Tears

My tears of joy
Fall as spring rain
And tears of pain
Like autumn stain

As morning dew
Both caught by You
Precious and dear
You kept them too

They mix and touch
Both dark and light
Colors all leaping
A joyous sight

My rainbow tears
Tough grays of pain
Erasing gloom
Like cleansing rain

No light is lost
When these two share
For joy imparts
Peace everywhere

God change my heart
And show me how
To share Your light
Both here and now

Mingle Your joy
Within my pain
Make me Your light
And springtime rain
